

Air Quality Specialist/Engineer

InterAct provides a broad range of professional engineering and project management services to the international oil and gas industry. We assist our clients at every stage in the oilfield life cycle, from field development through the production phase to facilities decommissioning and abandonment.

We are currently looking for a full time Air Quality Specialist to assist in various air quality permitting and compliance tasks in California. To apply please forward your resume using the contact information below.

SUMMARY of QUALIFICATIONS

- Understanding of the general air quality regulatory “climate” in California
- Familiarity with Air Districts rules and regulations, and the way the Districts operate and regulate the industry
- Basic understanding of oil and gas production equipment and associated emissions
- Familiarity with air emissions calculations and inventories
- Knowledge of emissions reduction technologies and equipment
- Familiarity with CEQA/NEPA process is desirable
- Experience with DOGGR, land use and other permitting is desirable

PRINCIPAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assists in preparation of permit applications, compliance programs/plans
- Assists in emissions calculations
- Occasional onsite visits to oil and gas facilities for data gathering, photography of equipment, facility audits or assistance with inspections
- Provides technical expertise on air quality regulations
- Prepares reports on performed work
- Works with limited supervision on the assigned tasks

SPECIFICATIONS

- Minimum of Bachelors degree in Environmental Science, Engineering or related field
- A minimum of 5 years of experience in air quality regulatory field
- Self sufficient and can manage his or her time and budgets
- Excellent record-keeping skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Intermediate to advanced knowledge of MS Office software, specifically Excel and Word

InterAct offers an extensive and very competitive benefits package that includes medical, dental, and vision insurance; basic and dependent life insurance policies; voluntary term life insurance; long term disability benefits; flexible spending accounts for medical and dependent care; 401K retirement plan; and supplement insurance through AFLAC.