

Regulatory Specialist

InterAct provides a broad range of professional engineering and project management services to the international oil and gas industry. We assist our clients at every stage in the oilfield life cycle, from field development through the production phase to facilities decommissioning and abandonment.

We are currently looking for a full time Regulatory Specialist to assist in various permitting and compliance tasks in California. To apply please forward your resume using the contact information below.

SUMMARY of QUALIFICATIONS

- Understanding of the general regulatory “climate” in California
- Familiarity with agencies, permit application process, and the way agencies operate and regulate the industry
- Excellent research skills to find regulations, standards, rules and policies
- Basic understanding of oil and gas production equipment is desirable
- Familiarity with CEQA/NEPA process is desirable
- Experience with DOGGR, land use, air quality, biology or marine biology and other permitting is desirable

PRINCIPAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assists in preparation of permit applications, compliance programs/plans
- Occasional onsite visits to oil and gas facilities for data gathering, photography of equipment, facility audits or assistance with inspections
- Occasional visits to agencies to submit/process permits or obtain information
- Prepares reports on performed work
- Works with limited supervision on the assigned tasks

SPECIFICATIONS

- Minimum of Bachelors degree in Environmental Science, Science, Engineering, Economics, Planning or related field
- A minimum of 5 years of experience in a regulatory or engineering field
- Self sufficient and can manage his or her time and budgets
- Excellent record-keeping skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Intermediate to advanced knowledge of MS Office software, specifically Excel and Word.

InterAct offers an extensive and very competitive benefits package that includes medical, dental, and vision insurance; basic and dependent life insurance policies; voluntary term life insurance; long term disability benefits; flexible spending accounts for medical and dependent care; 401K retirement plan; and supplement insurance through AFLAC.